

English for Journalism

GAME: Crossword with Irregular Past Tense

Across

2. The criminal _____ (drives) 150 km/h because he was trying to lose the police that were following him.

5. The protester _____ (holds) signs about reducing college costs.

6. The university seminar _____ (teaches) the students about safety on campus.

7. The wind _____ (blows) up to 150 km/h on Saturday! Many trees fell over!

English for Journalism

10. The police_____ (catch) the criminal!
13. The evidence_____ (leads) the police to the criminal.
15. The actress_____ (speaks) honestly to the journalist about her experiences shooting the film.
16. When I was young I _____ (have) a black and white cat called Nuggets. He was my best friend.
18. The protesters_____ (fight) for equal rights in the workplace.
21. The company was shut down by the government because people_____ (pay) for things they didn't receive.
22. The politician_____ (buys) things for his home with government money. It's illegal so she was forced to leave her job.

Down

1. The hurricane_____ (begins) last Sunday at sundown.
3. The police_____ (ride) horses at the parade last weekend.
4. The quarterback_____ (throws) the winning pass in the last moments of the Super bowl.
7. The crowds_____ (become) angrier as the prime minister was speaking.
8. The criminal_____ (steals) three wallets and 4 pieces of jewelry.
9. The voters_____ (choose) the representatives on Election Day.
11. The line_____ (grows) late into the evening as it got closer to the show.
12. The audience_____ (thinks) the play was overpriced and not very interesting.
14. He was arrested because he_____ (drinks) too many alcoholic beverages and then tried to drive home.
17. The concert tickets_____ (sell) out completely after only being on sale for an hour.
19. The journalist_____ (spends) 3 years researching the story.
20. The presidential candidate_____ (brings) signs and buttons for everyone at the rally on Saturday.
22. The city_____ (builds) the museum to remember that day in history